

Success Stories Questions – Liz Ashley

- What would you say is your life's purpose?

Love and learn be happy make a difference to the world

- On a scale of 1-10, and your full potential is 10, having wasted your life is 1, how would you score yourself now?

None of my life has ever been a waste, some time a roller coaster. I'm getting closer and closer to 10 ever day

- If not 10, when and how?

Because some times I doubt my self and there is other time I fight to hard for things that I aren't meant to be and most of the time I'm been told that but I just don't always see it straight away it someone telling my path is in another direction

- If you can think of one person, one piece of advice, or an experience that happened to you when you were young [less than 6], that helped you get to where you are now who and what would they or that be?

Believe in your self

Let go ..... it a amazing what comes back !

Fran Morgan teaching me to say no to people, put my self first, learning to live, love my life my self so then I can help others.

The foot step poem which was given to me stranger with smiling eyes.

'TBF'G' (The big friendly giant) – 'Jack' as he is fondly known in our family. His Love

- What advice would you give to a young person or child who wanted to realise their dream?

Believe in your self, learn, love

– which ever way your dream takes you not forget to look out side the box allow your dream to grow and maybe even change.

Grab every step feel with both hands good & bad ones build on them. Learn from them but most of all pass them on and grow with them change someone else's life.

But never stop believing in yourself, you can do it and you are here to do it for a reason

But the most important ask your angels every day to guide you and thank them!!!

- What advice would you give to their parent, guardian or carer?

Don't live your dream in them,

Unconditionally

Let them grow, encourage, do not expect too much but expect the unexpected. Love, Care and support them. Open yours and their minds. .... believe and enjoy, Just may be your reason for being with them is to help them on their path to greater things than you could ever have imagined. Who knows where their journey will take them, who they will leave their foot print on .....for a better world...Love... may be world peace !

Let them sail ;O)
